

Disability Pride

Learn tools to help enhance your child's self-esteem and leadership skills. Explore strategies you can implement which will lay the foundation for successful outcomes throughout your child's transition to adulthood and throughout their lifetime. Participants will leave this workshop with a clear understanding of the Building Blocks of Pride. Attendees will:

- Gain an understanding of the proud and powerful concept
- Explore the important role that disability history, culture, and pride play in the lives of people with disabilities
- Discuss ways that family members can support the development of pride and power in the lives of their family members with disabilities
